fashion to fall for

FROM ALLISON BERLIN, FASHION STYLIST

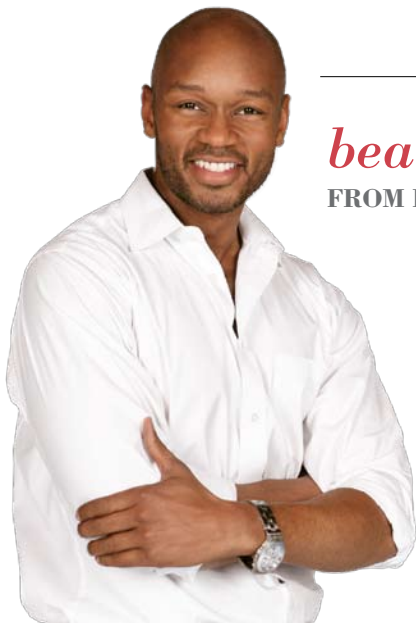

- Gray, camel, nude, cream and tweed make a gorgeous and wearable palette for fall. If you're fair skinned add a rich navy, chocolate or green accent to flatter the face.
- Curves are back on the runway this season. Fit and flare dresses, knee-length pencil skirts, scoop necklines and lace tops flatter real bodies and go from day to dinner.

beauty to fall for

FROM ROSS BURTON, CELEBRITY MAKEUP ARTIST

- Gear up for the fall season by honoring your skin. Unlike the summer, the drier months are ahead of you, so stay ahead of the game by keeping your skin well nourished.
- To amp up your look this fall, enhance eyes by adding a dark violet, cobalt blue or burgundy shadow to the lash line or corners of the eye. The result is a sexy, sultry eye that's right on trend.
